

I am in favor of VID-STS becoming a mandated service at the FCC. I am an AAC user and would use VID-STS in combination with AAC. The delay in the speech disability community requesting this technology stems from the lack of political power of potential users. Speech disability by nature limits the ability to advocate. Speech disability is often concomitant with other disabilities which prevent them from being advocates.